INVASION OF STUDENTS' PRIVACY
A local school received 80 letters of complaint from parents and students, after cameras were installed in their school toilets last week. Parents and students were not consulted about the cameras before they were installed. The parents say that their children have a right to privacy and want the cameras to be taken out. They argue that there has been no evidence to prove that the cameras will reduce bullying or vandalism. They believe it will just take place somewhere else. However, the local council, who run the school, don't want to remove the cameras. They insist that they are necessary to stop crime in schools. The parents have now taken the matter higher up, and asked the Education Secretary to get involved.
